Why you should sign up:

Governance has held the spotlight of discussions worldwide over the past two decades. Scholars and practitioners increasingly recognize that an effective production and a fair distribution of goods and services depend fundamentally on efficient, accessible and accountable systems of governance. The speakers – two renowned experts in governance studies – will analyze some of the most intriguing governance accomplishments and challenges of contemporary China and Europe.

Treats:

Enjoy a buffet, while viewing a poster gallery of the research results of the PhD fellows of the Vienna School of Governance (ViGo)
